

I am writing to implore you to please do everything to can to promote independent, local broadcasting, and reduce corporate control of the public airways. Our democracy depends on this freedom. The airways belong to the people and should serve them by allowing for more local control and access.

Sincerely,
Pam Jenkins